

Maybe she's in your town!

Kate Kovalick, our National Sales Executive, will be travelling around the country this year so we thought we should keep you up to date on her whereabouts in case she is visiting your city! She would love to meet you and catch up with our fellow NACE/ISES members so we will be sure to keep all of you posted!

This week she is in Napa Valley and San Francisco attending the ISES "Green" events on April 20th and NACE Annual Gala on April 21st. Be sure to introduce yourself or say hello if you are attending!
